

Ball for President and Mrs. Harding Like a Court Event

Latin American Envoys Give Brilliant Dance in Pan-American Building.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
New York Herald Bureau.
Washington, D. C., May 11.

The President and Mrs. Harding were the guests of honor at a reception and ball for them in the beautiful and historic Pan-American Building. The reception ball at the Pan-American Building was arranged with the same precision and regard for precedence and etiquette.

Democratic Washington rather marveled when cards were sent out with invitations directing guests how to proceed and what to wear—"uniform or evening dress." And the surprise was even greater when it was hoped that there were two receiving parties, one at the top of the second staircase, reserved for diplomats and official personages; the other to welcome the other guests, and that in the hall of the Pan-American Building by a special committee of diplomats. In the hall of flags they were greeted by all their hosts, the diplomatic representatives of the twenty Latin American republics with the women of their families, and were escorted to their places in the hall of the Americas, where Vice-President Coolidge, the European diplomats, cabinet officers and other leaders in official life already were assembled.

Mrs. Harding wore white satin embroidered at the bodice with crystals, brilliants and pearls and with the same embroidery appearing on the long train. A scarf of black tulle partially veiled the train and one great black velvet flower with a center of brilliants marked the waist line. She wore a string of pearls and her wrap was fashioned of green brocade bordered about the bottom, neck and sleeves with orchid ostrich tips.

Is Head of Maine Society.

Frank A. Munsey New President,
Succeeding C. R. Flint.

Frank A. Munsey was elected president of the Maine Society of New York at the annual meeting of the board of trustees, held in the office of the retiring president, Charles R. Flint, 25 Broad street. Other officers elected were Hoyt Moore, vice-president, and William L. Foy, secretary.

The Maine Society, which is one of the large and representative State organizations of the city, elected five trustees on May 5 to the board, of which Mr. Munsey was a member.

James McKean of Brooklyn was the first president of the organization, others who had been honored by being elected to the office of its president being Charles C. Littlefield, Albert H. Dickinson, Dr. Jeremiah S. Ferguson, William E. Pulsifer and Mr. Munsey's predecessor, Mr. Flint.

A special meeting of the society will be held this evening in Aeolian Hall, when pictures showing scenes in Maine, based on the writings of Holman Day, the novelist, will be displayed.

Mme. Tetrizzini to Sail To-day to Form Patriotic Society

Will Organize Daughters of Italian Revolution Like Body in America.

Mme. Luisa Tetrizzini, the prima donna, will sail for Italy to-day by the Greek liner King Alexander, with the intention of forming in her native land a Society of Daughters of the Italian Revolution, modeled after the Daughters of the American Revolution. The singer reached the chief guest early in the winter at a reception for members of the Rufus King Chapter of the American Daughters in the home of Mrs.
John King Van Rensselaer, 157 East
Thirty-seventh street.

The social and patriotic principles of the American society so appealed to Mme.
Tetrizzini, who is the daughter of a Florentine patriot who fought under Garibaldi, that she decided to originate a similar society in her native land.
Mr. Bambrella, Counsellor of the Italian Embassy in Washington, has given the project his endorsement. Queen Elena will be the first honorary president.
The headquarters will be in Mme.
Tetrizzini's palazzo in Rome. She will spend two months forming the society and will then go to her villa at Lugano, Switzerland. Other singers who will sail by the King Alexander are Titta Ruffo, the barytone, who next season will sing at the Metropolitan Opera House, and Miss Rosa Ralska and Giacomo Rimini, of the Chicago Opera Company.

Mrs. J. O. Green and the Misses Eleanor G. and Sarah Cooper Hewitt, her sisters, will sail to-day on board the Mauretania to pass most of the summer abroad. They will have as fellow passengers Mrs. and Mr. Roy King, whose marriage took place last Saturday. Miss Ethel King, Miss Helen Cameron and Mr. Frederic Rhinelandt King, who are members of the family circle of Mrs. Le Roy King, the mother of the bridegroom, also will sail.

Other passengers by the Mauretania include Mr. W. A. Day, president of the Scottish Assurance Society; Mr. and Mrs. John Russell Pope, Gen. John Thompson, Mr. William T. Fliden 2d, the noted lawn tennis player; Mr. William La Montagne, who is going over to attend the international polo games; Mr.
Cortlandt W. Handy, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Kingsland and her son-in-law and daughter, Vicome and Vicome de Vaulou, whose marriage took place recently in Paris, had arranged to sail on the Mauretania, but were forced to postpone their sailing from Cherbourg until a later date. The incomers on the White Star liner included Mrs.
Oliver H. P. Belmont, who had spent several weeks in England and Paris with her daughter, the Duchess of Marlborough, Mr. Edward de Peyser King, Mr. J. Parker Kirlin, Mr. and Mrs. Newell M. Doris Nevill, Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Padelford, Miss
Abby Rockefeller, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Douglas Sloane, who will open their country place on the north shore of Long Island; Mrs. George Willing,
Mrs. and Mr. W. Tweedy.

Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney also returned by the Olympic. She went abroad on March 26 to arrange for the exhibition of her sculptured works in the galleries of Georges Petit in Paris. She returned highly pleased with her success. As she has been told in the head of the Titanic memorial—has been taken by France to be placed in the Luxembourg Museum. She said she appreciated the offer of the French Government, and has been told to London, and will be in the Levee Galleries beginning to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Oakman, who also returned by the Olympic, will be at the St. Regis until they go to Isle de France, where they will stay at Bayberry Point, Isle de France.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Daly of 1667
Fifth avenue will sail by the Aquitania on May 24 to remain abroad through the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Forsyth Wickes, who will start for Europe on board the Olympic on Saturday, will return early in August and go to Newport.

M. Millard Visits Salon.
PARIS, May 11.—President Millard, accompanied by Mme. Millard and his staff, made a formal visit to the Salon to-day and spent a considerable time in the section where American architecture is being exhibited by the American Institute of Architects. M.
Millard asked that the representation of the French Government for the cooperation of American architects be expressed.

Social Notes.
Mrs. Merwin K. Lee has gone to Baltimore to remain a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Childs of Pittsburgh and Mr. and Mrs. Allen B.
Porbes of Greenwich, Conn., are at the Plaza.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Alexander of Great Neck, L. I., and Mrs. C. M. Greer and Mrs. M. J. Whitley of Westbury, L. I., are at the Ambassador Hotel.

Frank Bruce of "Zigzag" fame will close the Carroll Club Festival Sunday.
He has promised to tell the story of his life and will draw the lucky winners of the festival prizes.

MISS EDNA MAE ALEXANDER WED TO ADELBERT G. VOLCK

Bridegroom Is Stepson of Brazilian Ambassador to England.

Miss Edna Mae Alexander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Cecil Alexander, of Kingston, Jamaica, B. W. I., was married last night to Mr. Adelbert George Volck, a son of Mrs. Domicio da Gama, wife of the Brazilian Ambassador to the Court of St. James's, at 114 Upper Mountain avenue, Montclair, N. J., the home of Mr. and Mrs.
J. B. Jones, the bride's aunt.

The bride, by the Rev. John H. Willey of Montclair, was neither a bride-maid nor usher. Mr. Corwin Black of New York acted as Mr. Volck's best man. The ceremony was followed by a dinner and dance.

The bride, who is just seventeen, has been attending school here and living with her aunt, Mrs. Jones, whose husband is the supervisor of the Royal Bank of Canada. The couple will sail by the Olympic on Saturday for London to join his mother, Mme. da Gama, who was unable to come over for the marriage, as she fell several months ago in her London house, fracturing a knee.

A few years after the death of Mr.
Volck's father his mother was married to the late Arthur Hearn, son of the late James A. Hearn. Much of her life has been spent in London, where they will live for a year.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fletcher, Jr., of 101 East Seventy-fourth street, upon the birth of their second child, Marjorie
and will then go to her villa at Lugano, Switzerland. Other singers who will
